Just an FYI for now but it looks as though access to the evidence office will be limited to evidence office staff. I believe Julie will send out a more formal notification when it is instituted and what this will mean for chemists. Until you receive more info go about business as usual.

Stay tuned.

Hi All

By now you've heard about the changes being made as to who is to have access to the evidence office. If not, surprise! Anyway, when the change is made you'll have to leave your request slips outside the office in the box on the table across from the evidence window. I will get them.
